in Review—1963

With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lubke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

MAY 29, 1917— NOVEMBER 22, 1963

"I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart which shall not be put out."

"He upheld the faith of our Fathers, which is freedom for all men. He broadened the frontiers of that faith, and backed it with the energy and the courage which are the mark of the Nation that he led."

"A man of wisdom, strength and peace, he molded and moved the power of our Nation in the service of a world of growing liberty and order. All who love freedom will mourn his death."

"He said it himself: 'The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it--and the glow from that fire can truly light the world.'"

Bus drivers: Herbert Amos, Charles Swihart, Herman Alderfer, Bill Mechling, Malcolm Miller, Ermal McKee, Don Fishburn, Ray Warstler, Bob Rice and Chauncey Dennie.

Each year the bus drivers, cooks and custodians endeavor to make each school day run more smoothly. Because of their efforts pupils are provided with transportation to school; hot, nourishing lunches and clean rooms in which to study. Unfortunately our hard working and honor deserving custodians--Ruby Smith, Rome Zink, Kenneth Free and Roscoe Shaffer--were not photographed because of conflicts in their working schedules. Their labors are not unnoticed by us however, and we do appreciate the fact that our pride in our school is due, in large part, to their pride in our school too.

Our good cooks--Nadine Snyder and Evelyn Hughes.

Part of what makes Argos High School outstanding is the quality of its student-teacher relationship. At Argos, the teachers and pupils are close friends. As the number of students in each class is small the teacher is able to help us with our problems. We are also unique in that our school is one of the few which employs teachers' aids. We have three who help in the office, the classroom, the cafeteria and the supervision of study halls which gives the other teachers more time for classroom teaching.

The Senior class has been led by Mrs. Doris Hindman and Mr. Lowell Ritter throughout our four years of high school. Our sponsors have helped each year with all of the class projects and have always been behind us. As Sophomores we gave a chicken supper and took a trip to Chicago. Our junior year was busy too with the Jr. Play, the Jr.-Sr. Prom and, of course, concessions. Our loyal sponsors generously remained after school each Friday to don aprons and pop poccorn. (With the old popper this was no easy chore!) The sponsors went from popcorn and apples to crepe paper and ladders to decorate for the prom. At last our Senior year arrived. With it came the Senior trips and the Sr. play. Thanks again to our grand sponsors for their encouragement and support.

Always on the lookout for something new to do, the Senior class enjoyed a weekend excursion to Detroit, Michigan and Windsor, Canada. At approximately 5:00 A.M., one October morning, 40 Seniors and 4 sponsors boarded a bus at the school. It took us a while to get our eyes open. Soon we were wide awake, so our sponsors attest. When we invaded Detroit, we enjoyed a trip to the Ford Motor Company and the Henry Ford Museum. That night we stayed at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. We all enjoyed Cinerama and the next day journeyed to Windsor and headed home a tired but happy group.

The Seniors are busy all their last year making a final impact on their school and on the underclassmen. One of the first changes noticed is the advent of Senior cords. The variety of these is limited only by the individual imagination. This year thirty-four Seniors chose to elaborate on the plain faded cords and painted these in various and sundry fashion. Every thing from dancing girls and hot rods to flaming pants cuffs could be seen plus the usual elaboration on activities, clubs and school events.

Another Senior high light was our trip to Chicago as guests of the State Exchange Bank. All of us were able to go. Because we left so early we stopped at The Waffle Shop in Dyer for breakfast and then on to our destination. We spent most of the morning touring the Continental Illinois National Band & Trust Co. and enjoyed lunch there. Then we visited the Board of Trade

As juniors, we put on the prom for the Seniors, and we were proud of our efforts. The prom was a success in every possible way. This year as Seniors we were honored and "Southern Serenado" was everything a prom should be. We thank the juniors for giving us another night to remember and a last dance to add to our memories. Our parents and teachers have guided us this far. Now it is up to us to go forward and justify their faith.

Under Miss Olin's sponsorship, the Pep Club was led this year by a fine group of officers. Carolyn Nycz was presidnet and was assisted by Jane Roahrig as vice-president and Rosemary Heckaman as secretary-treasurer. The junior high treasurer was Leah Warner. This year's pep block was the largest ever and the enthusiasm of the students was evident when two fan buses had to be hired for most of the away games. The cheerleaders and the team really appreciated the backing they received from the Pep Club. The Pep Band was a new innovation this year and it met with instant approval from spectators of all ages. We are looking forward to another year with an even larger, more impressive pep block.

Each year the Argos Sunshine Society sponsors various activities. A candy sale is held in the fall in order to raise money to contribute to the Riley Fund which buys equipment for the Riley Children's Hospital. We have three major parties during the year--A Dad's party, A Sweetheart Dance, and an Ideal Ladies Party. Baskets of food are shared with the needy at Christmas and Thanksgiving. Through these activities the Sunshine Girls carry out their goal of spreading love and sunshine.

The primary aim of FFA is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship. The highest grade of membership an FFA member can attain is the degree of American Farmer which is conferred only at national conventions. At that time they are charged: "to continue your abounding faith in the agricultural industry and home life in the open country. Be ever proud to be tillers of the soil and producers of many of the necessities of life. Consider your work as a calling and take pride in worthy achievements."

THE MARCHING

The Marching Dragons, composed of 46 members, fill the basketball season with music and pageantry when they exhibit their precision marching shows at half-times. Twirlers, Marilyn Eley and Richard Leeper, add an extra spark to the half-time entertainment. The Marching Dragons perform the band shows under the direction of Linda Weissert, majorette. In addition to functioning as a marching band, the group also performs as a concert band. The band plans the agenda for a full year. Part of the schedule includes night rehearsals, contest preparation and winter, spring and summer concerts for the public. The band also travels to other cities as a group to participate in parades and related musical activities.

GAA has an active membership of 74. The girls can be found at school one or two nights a week participating in the five organized sports available. They are softball, volleyball, basketball, dancing, and bowling. Girls earn points thru their participating in these organized sports as well as by activity in certain other sports as hiking and bicycling. In addition, there are written exams and tests demonstrating skills. Ten Senior girls won the state plaque. This is achieved by earning a total of 350 points over a four year period. In order to raise funds, the GAA held a snack bar in the cafeteria after all the home basketball games. We also served dinners for local organizations.

Fifteen hundred people jammed the gymnasium from Argos, Triton, and the surrounding area. After the B team game came the climax of the week's activity. Miss Marge Wolf, senior, was crowned 1963 Homecoming Queen by Student Council President, Ron Cullers. Marge accepted a dozen red roses and an engraved trophy from council representative, Miss Reta Nifong. Marge's attendants were Miss Nancy Carmean, senior, 1st runner-up; and Miss Linda Carmean, sophomore, 2nd runner-up.

ANXIETY PREVAILS

On November 26, a bonfire marked the beginning of Homecoming 1963. The raging fire proclaimed the school spirit of which everyone was truly a part. Cheers, chants, and music echoed through the high school Wednesday afternoon as the pep band led students to the gym. The rousing pep session was the 2nd stepping stone to the evening of festivities. After the varsity game, a dance, sponsored by Student Council, was held on the deck to conclude 1963 Homecoming festivities.

THE SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS— LOCK, STOCK & LIPSTICK

The Senior class was again fortunate to have Mrs. Elizabeth Stephenson direct the play production. She directed us in a hit last year too. The action in the play begins when Jane Gardner, an attractive new teacher, shares an office with a confirmed misogynist. From there on the fun begins. This play production did not depend on the cast alone, but upon many committees working together; such as stage, make-up, ushers and advertising. Following the play, class members attended a party at Carol Eley's home. Everyone relaxed from the tension of acting and had a good time as a finale to a big night. Each one of the Seniors indeed contributed idrectly to making Lock, Stock & Lipstick the success we felt it was.

A DATE WITH JUDY is a three act comedy about a teenager's attempts to become the local Queen. In order to raise the money necessary to win the title, Judy enters all sorts of contests using the names of other family members. This leads to all kinds of amusing trouble. The entire Junior class set to with a will and those who did not play specific characters on stage still put forth a great deal of effort. Many hands helped Miss Olin with the stage settings and lighting. Among those were Bill Russell, Jerry Patton, Jan Umbaugh, Pat Caslow, and Alice Cole. Rene' Archambeault and Sandra Warstler helped with the make-up. Mr. Wysong's ticket and publicity committee had help from Pat Carr and Jerry Ferguson. All in all, we thoroughly enjoyed the evening we had worked so hard to reach. Afterwards, Sandra Warstler was hostess for a class party at the American Legion Home. Everyone had a good time, and we went home with the feeling of a job well done. Our grateful thanks to Miss Mahoney for all her understanding and patience.

Eating as the sun rises

A Good

About a month before the prom, Argos students noticed a change in the school atmosphere. Whispered conversation stopped abruptly as Seniors approached. Excitement mounted as definite plans formed for the first prom to be held on the gym floor instead of the deck. The banquet given in honor of the Seniors started the evenings activities. The speaker for this occasion was Mr. Russell Rohrer, our Supt. of Schools. As the evening progressed, dubious Seniors admitted that the Juniors had indeed transformed the gym. Senior class colors of aqua and silver were evident in the gay streamers forming the walls. From the porch of the lovely Southern Mansion came the sound of the "Stingrays."

It's 3 o'clock in the morning!

Wet that whistle, Gentlemen.

As couples danced around the wishing well, they could almost catch the scent of magnolia blossoms. "Southern Serenade" was a wonderful prom, and the good time had by all was topped off by the wonderful after-prom party given by the Argos Lions at the Plymouth Country Club.

ATHLETICS 1964

SPORTS FANS ENTHUSIASTIC

SOCCER!! A NEW FIRST!!

Argos achieved a new first this year, by initiating soccer as an interscholastic sport in Indiana. Through a series of games with CMA fans enjoyed this exciting game and players gained valuable experience. Argos and CMA promoted soccer through statewide publicity, a spring soccer clinic and an instructional game in South Bend. As a result of these efforts, a soccer league was formed and regular competition will begin this fall. Because of its unique qualities, soccer has dominated the sports light in most of the world except for the United States. Tracing the rapid growth of soccer here in recent years, who is to say that soccer may soon find the place it deserves in the interscholastic athletic program throughout Indiana with Argos leading the way!

School spirit reached an all-time high among the students; enthusiasm was contagious. Amid the shouts and cheers of basketball fans, the pep band could be heard. The team was also supported by a mass pep club that made sure its victory cry was heard. The atmosphere created by the cheerleaders, pep block, and the pep band was one that sports fans will not forget.

As fall arrived, cheerleaders donned their new uniforms and began a tedious practice schedule. Win or lose, the cheerleaders were always on the job. This year was a tough one athletically but our cheerleaders never admitted defeat. Activity instilled spirit into Dragon partisans and the effort paid off in spirit that boosted basketball morale to unprecedented heights and made a united student body come to life.

SECTIONAL "64"

REBOUND! & IT'S UP & IN FOR ARGOS.

The Argos team gathered momentum as the sectional approached and the Dragons went into the tourney spouting fire. Unranked by the fortune tellers Argos became the "Cinderella Team" (quote Doc Fod) of the Plymouth Sectional.

Argos avenged an earlier defeat by West with a score of 54-50 and thus qualified to play the tourney favored Triton Trojans. Having lost twice to Triton the inspired Dragons were not to be denied the third time. Before the end of the first quarter Triton was well aware that they had more than met their match.

Seven Dragons contributed to the Argos attack. The shooting of Redinger and Cox, the rebounding of Martens, O'Dell and Warrick plus the defensive tenacity of Hoskins and Patton put Argos into the Saturday competition for the first time in five years. Culver's long shooting proved to be more than the Dragons could cope with and Argos was eliminated by the eventual champion.

ALL SPORTS

The All Sports Banquet is graciously sponsored by the PTA each year and this year we were fortunate to have John Ray, assistant football coach at Notre Dame University, as our speaker. He stressed the value of hard work and honesty in athletics and in life. He also commented on self discipline and self sacrifice. Coach Powell was the Master of Ceremonies and presented the sports awards to those present. The GAA awards were presented by their sponsor, Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Gene Irwin represented the American Legion as he presented the two sportsmanship awards. The most outstanding athlete in basketball who best demonstrated those qualities of sportsmanship was Charles Redinger. Kay Van Der Weele received the same award for those qualities in a cheerleader.

EIGHTH GRADE WORKS, PLAYS HARD

In the fall of the year the Goblins were busy and the eighth grade contributed to the October moon magic with an eerie party in the cafeteria. Among other strange occurrences, they witnessed the apparent demise of three beloved sponsors.

Later came more serious business as the entire class collaborated on the writing, staging and costuming of an 11 scene panorama entitled "Living Pictures." Mrs. Hindman and Mrs. Dorman directed this as it was proudly presented before the members of the PTA where it was very well received.

MR. & MRS. HAROLD HOUGLAND . . .

Sixteen excellent teachers assemble daily in the elementary wing of the building to instruct, counsel, play, and occasionally wipe the runny noses of Kindergarten through the sixth grade. The closer the students approach grade six, the fewer runny noses; and so goes the educational process. Under the principalship of Mr. Harold Hougland, our elementary faculty is one of which to be justifiably proud. A sound elementary program lays the foundation, without which a strong graduate could not emerge.

JUNIOR BAND

School is exciting from the very beginning. The Kindergarten children enjoyed their visits from the Home Economics class. The friendly clown, as personified by Susie Hessler, brings a smile to the children's faces. As we grow in ability and grades, other activities take our time. Participation in Junior Band helps youngsters to grow and think on their own. It also helps to develop skills and abilities, as well as providing a source of enjoyment and enrichment.

Helping Hands

Extracurricular activities keep the elementary children busy too. Basketball is a source of real pleasure for these growing boys, and the girls are happy to be able to cheer them on either as a cheerleader or as a loyal member of the rooting section. The teachers, as well as other students, help in the regulation of these sports. "A friend in need, is a friend indeed" seems to be the motto by which our nurse, Mrs. Stewart, carries on her job. She is always ready and willing to soothe the fevered brow or take care of those cuts and scrapes. She is an essential person in our school life.

These boys enjoy noon recesses with planned recreation guided by John Snyder.

I don't know what to say in this article. I guess that I'm just not much at writing funny jokes, but I do want to say that I really had a wonderful time my freshman year. Hope that in the years to come in Granville have the same fun as I have had in the past. Best wishes & luck in the future, to a senior as "67".
